Spring Troupe of '54

The companies of Marin, Cornell, and Cordonices merged to make the "Greatest Show on Earth", in September, 1949. One hundred thirty-seven members in the cast immediately began rehearsing for their first performance, "Jack And The Beanstalk", an operetta.

The next year they found they could participate in J. V. sports, the Choir, and other side shows under the "Big Top".

Mellowed by three years' experience, they took to the stage with "John Loves Mary", the Junior Play. Soon after came the command performance--"Coronation Ball", the Junior Prom. By this time, the company had realized it was headed for stardom, and had chosen its production crew: Bob Ettinger, president; Juanita Pelegrin, vice-president; Lynn Pawson, secretary; and Charles Rogers, treasurer. Under their able direction the "troupe" went on to even greater things.

The last season quickly drew to a close--packed full of work and play. Then the big night arrived. The last production of the "Greatest Show on Earth" was staged after five successful seasons under the "Big Top". After the last curtain call had been made, the show closed down amid congratulations of relatives and friends, scattering the 116 members of the cast to make their way alone in the biggest show of all.

LE ROY BANKS
Good company on the way makes the journey seem shorter.

DONALD BARTHMAN
Animals are agreeable friends--they ask no questions, pass no criticisms.

BEVERLY BATISTE
Knowledge comes; wisdom lingers.

HOWARD BAUER
Independence now; independence forever.

RICHARD BERNARD
The greater the courtesy, the greater the man.

DONNA BOCKMIER
Her voice is ever soft, gentle and low.

CHARLES BORREANI
"I've been told time and time again."

RONALD BRENNER
"Aw, leave me alone, girls."

GLADYS BRYANT
What lurks behind that twinkle in her eye?

LOIS BURKE
It is well for one to know more than she says.

The golden rule works like gravitation.

JOE DORSEY
A man among men.

BRUCE ELY
"Too late I stayed in bed--forgive the crime."

ROBERT ETTINGER
Variety is the spice of life.

JEAN FORSTER
Speaking of cards, she's the whole pack.

REYNOLD FOSS
"Give me a vacation or give me death."

JAMES GACHIS
"I have laid aside business, and gone a fishin'"

LOYD GARRETT
Two stars keep not their motion in one sphere.

OYD GARRETT
None but himself can be his parallel.

MARY GARRISON
It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.

KIMBALL GILES
Men talk only to conceal the mind.

WILLIAM GLEASON
He who has knowledge spares his words.

DUANE GOWLAND
Still waters run deep.

HELEN GOYETTE
"Men may come and men may go, but I go on forever."

THOMAS GREEN
There's a bit of fun in every serious little boy.

GARY GRISHAM
Hitch your wagon to a star.

ROSIE GUTIERREZ
"I'll follow him through thick and thin."

RICHARD HEIN
"I never let my studies interfere with my education."

WILLIAM HERBERT
A noble man is slow to anger.

DAVID HIETALA
Men of few words are the best men.

PATTI HELGREN
Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

BEVERLY HENRIKSEN
Talk about ginger! She's the whole spice box.

MILDRED HOWARD
Good will is the mightiest practical force in the universe.

BARBARA HUTT
"There are other fellows than those in school.."

FRED IBSEN
"Pray tell, who will entertain the populace when I am gone?"

WILLIAM ISERT
"Either I will find a way, or I will make one."

MELBA JARVIS
Every inch a lady.

RITA JEFFRIES
Fine feathers make a fine bird.

MELVIN JOHNSON
Friendly is as friendly does.

DAVID KENNEDY
"Women! I love 'em!"

WILLIE LANE
"God bless the man who invented sleep."

CAROL LeBOULANGER
She's here. I heard her giggle!

DUANE LEVEQUE
A twinkle in his eye that would light a street lamp.

EDWARD LEWIS
"You'd never know I'm naturally bashful."

ROBERT LINN
Friend Robert, thou art graduating at last!

PATRICIA LYNCH
"How I wish speech were golden! I'd be a millionaire."

JOHN MALONE
All the world loves a clown.

PATRICIA MARLOWE
Charm strikes the sight, but merit wins the soul.

JOAN McCLARY
Words fail us; she is perfect.

CHARLES McDONALD
"I am Sir Oracle; and when I open my lips, let no dog bark."

WILLIAM McGIMPSEY
"Don't do today what you can put off until tomorrow."

PRESTON McKINNEY
Diligence is the mother of good fortune.

CLAUDIA MERCK
By the work one knows the workman.

BARRY MILLER
The truth is always the strongest argument.

ROBERT MILLER
Cut, and come again.

CAROLINE MOTTA
Nothing great is ever achieved without enthusiasm.

PHILIP MOWER
Lives in a world all his own.

MARY MULLINS
"Nothing is so difficult but that it may be found out by seeking."

JOHN NEMOTO
"I am a citizen of the world."

SHIRLEY NICHOLS
"I could a tale unfold."

PAUL O'GARA
On their own merits modest men are silent.

CLIFFORD OJALA
As large as life and twice as natural.

LYNN PAWSON
For she's a jolly good fellow and--gentlemen prefer blonds.

JUANITA PELEGRIN
"Full of mischief, wit, and glee. That's me!"

BILL PELUSO
You can't keep a good man down.

DAN PERKINS
Young fellows will be young fellows.

JANE PERRY
A woman is always changeable and capricious.

JUDY PETERS
A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance.

RONALD PETERSEN
"I was creeping along at forty-five, officer..."

VERNA PETERSON
"I make my fun, and have it too."

WILLIAM PICKERING
"A merry rogue am I!"

PATRICIA QUICK
Skating helps break the ice between strangers.

IRWIN RILE
As restless as the wind.

SALLIE ROBERTSON
Good things come in small packages.

HAROLD ROBSON
"Saying and doing are two things; I do them both."

CHARLES ROGERS
The less a man thinks or knows about his virtues, the better we like him.

JERRY SAURMAN
All things come round to him who will but wait.

JACQUELINE SAXTON
"All the world's a stage, and I am the leading lady."

SHARON SCHAAL
"Have I not, unawares, said some mischievous thing or another?"

DAVID SCHILLER
"One marine is worth four swabbies."

ERNEST SCHORSCH
Out of sight, but never out of hearing.

BARBARA SELF
"I came, I saw him, I conquered. . ."

ROBERT SHEDD
'Tis not what man does which exalts him, but what man would do!

MARION SILVA
Love, and a cough, cannot be hid.

LEE ANN STALLONE
Jose Iturbi has nothing on Lee Ann!

WILLIAM TARLETON
"Move aside, Cadillac, I'm coming through."

DONALD TORREZ
The only way to have a friend is to be one.

GLENNA VAUGHAN
"But I can't talk any louder!"

WALTER WALLACE
"Work fascinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours."

RALPH WARD
Let ignorance talk as it will; learning has its value.

MARILYN WATERMAN
"I saw a dream of a dress. . ."

DIANE WERRONEN
Ah, you flavor everything; you are the vanilla of society.

BETTY WILLIAMS
A penny for your thoughts.

DONNA WILLIAMS
To know her is to love her.

MARY WOOD
The things I haven't done aren't worth doing.

VENITTA YATES
Wise to resolve and patient to perform.

GAETANO YOUNG
All mankind loves a lover.

LaVONNE ZACK
Speech may be silver, but silence is golden.

JOAN ZAVATTARO
How quiet appearing--but wait 'til you know her!

RONALD ZUCCA
"Study may make others wise, but it makes me otherwise."

JOHN ZUERNER
He travels fastest who travels alone.

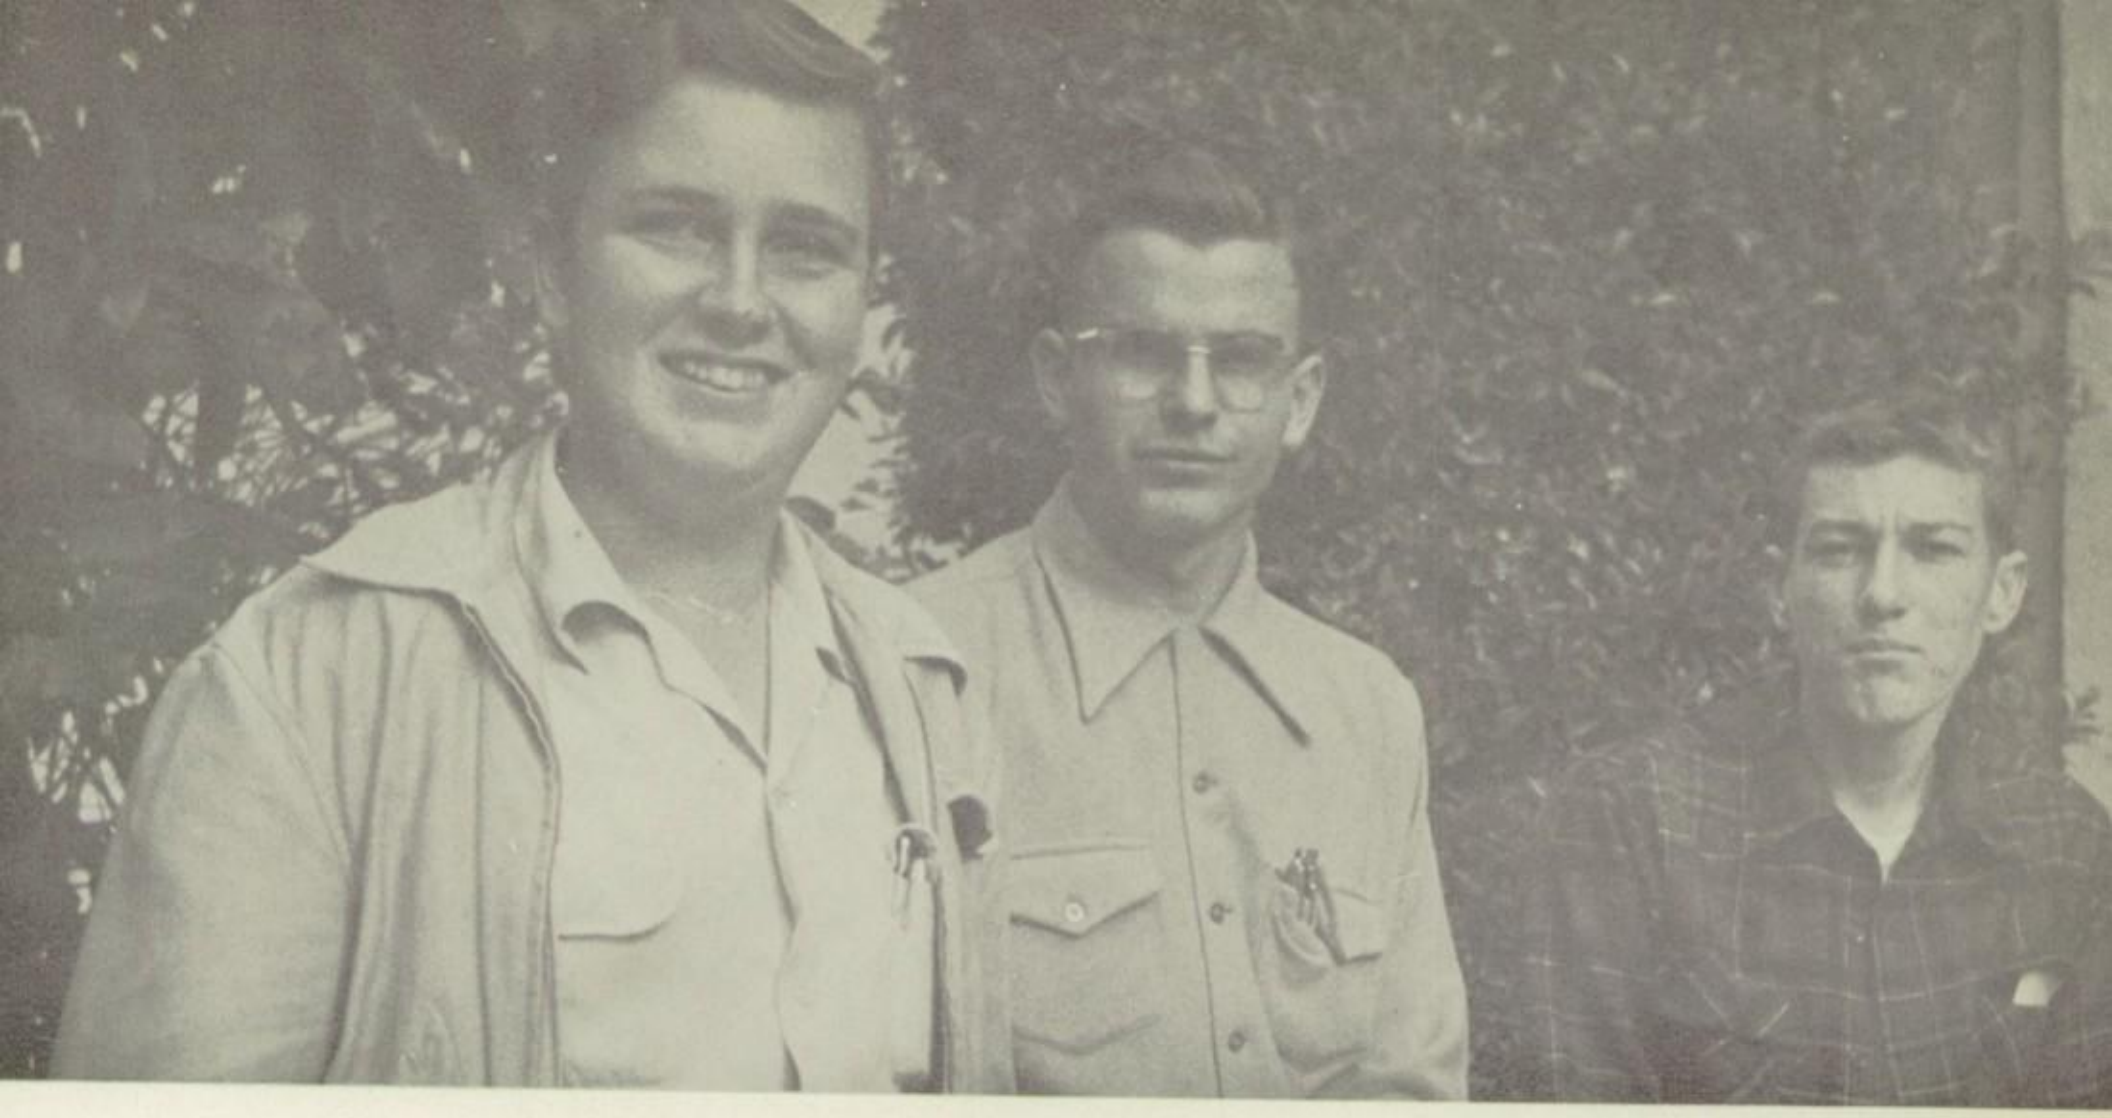
ALBANY CALIF MAY 1945



Mid-Season '54

From all over the country were chosen the performers for our show. We put on a great presentation when two new rings were added under the "Big Top"--the beautiful swimming pool and then the long awaited Cougar Field.

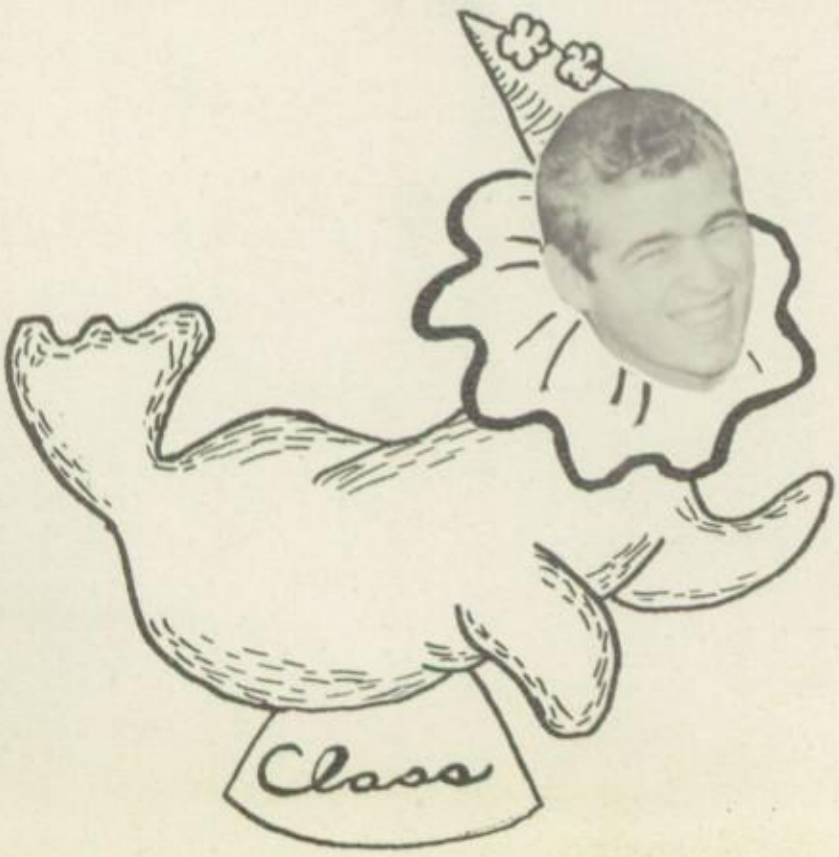
Our troupe has contributed to the exciting sideshow, football, basketball, concerts, band, officers, and clubs.

To one of our largest audiences we gave the "Coronation Ball". After its success came our first big show, "Father of the Bride", a hilarious comedy.

Soon after becoming the highest division under the "Big Top"--Seniors; we put on our second big show, the Senior Play.

Under the supervision of our able officers--Austin Prindle, Treasurer; Louis Wood, Vice-President; and Bill Young, President; the tickets went fast to our best and final presentation, Graduation.

Upon this glorious day, we all bade farewell to the cast with whom we'd made friends in the past five years, and emerged ready to enter the biggest production of all--"The Greatest Show on Earth."



Margot Blume
Soft and fair go far.

Denise Bylund
A horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse!

Rose Marie Cabral
"When you speak to me, speak gently!"

Nathaniel Cochran
Brains, hidden by beauty!

Daniel Copel
"The long way home is the best way home."

Bob Cramer
"I do a good deed every day."

Corley Eggleston
Quiet, but bubbling inside.

Elizabeth Fauntleroy
Never a dull moment.

Patricia Gann
Beauty is its own excuse for being.

Diane Gilson
Whisper not so loud, for the trees have ears.

Donald Greene
"The things they don't know about me."

Elaine Hagan
Business is the salt of life.

Nancy Higgins
Sports of field and stream attract her.

Frank Hill
He rolls his eyes, he smiles--that's all there is to it!

Arlyn Hogarth
He saves his words to commune with nature.

Kay Hood
But, sure, she's proud, and her pride becomes her.

Dorothy Hooks
"I live for those who love me."

Marion James
Knowledge is a treasure, but practice is the key to it.

Beverly Joost
Belle on her toes.

William Larsen
"Don't call me coach, call me 'Dad'!"

Patricia MacLeod
She's our Mickey, but no mouse!

Charlene Marinelli
There would be no great ones if there were no little ones.

Laurie McGaw
Young man with a horn.

Philip Meads
He will scan the heavens and search the atoms.

Norma Monti
Wit and wisdom travel together.

Robert Parrino
"I can put the shot."

Darlene Peterson
"I love cooking and travel and other interesting things."

Austin Prindle
A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Dora Pursell
"Don't, you're embarrassing me!"

Donald Randolph
"Work and I will never be friends."

Albert Rapella
He's shy and retreating and picks on girls.

Richard Robb
"Why do people talk so much? I never say a word!"

Eleanor Rosberg
If Eleanor is missing, the party will fall flat.

Patricia Royer
Pep and zip combine with brains.

Joyce Santos
"If I can't be a singer, I'll be a dancer."

Helen Sterner
No folly to being in love.

Larry Switzer
Everything comes to those who wait.

Ronald Taylor
"Down in Death Valley. . ."

Robert Thomas
"I see no reason to worry about anything."

Gary Vervair
"Come, my deer!"

James Watts
Our fiery-headed left-end.

William Weisshaar
"Excuse my dust."

Bettye Willis
"Life can be beautiful!"

Laura Winters
Sugar and spice and everything nice.

Lewis Wood
A good engineer is worth his weight in gold.

Allen Yother
"I think Albany is a wonderful place."

William Young
"Lemme tell you about it. . ."

The largest attraction under the Big Top is made up of a group of feminine troupers known as the Girls' League. Within its ranks are the Big Sisters, Hostess, and Honorary Outfits; the directors of which make up the Board that takes charge of all enterprises performed by the distaff side. The year 1954 marks their 20th anniversary as an active group. In 1934, this troupe was organized under the capable direction of Miriam F. Gilsenan, Dean of Girls. Among its side shows are an annual Girls' Week, Dance, and Spaghetti Feed, which are always gala events.

Dear Jo,
You have a real talent, and I wish you would take up art again. Don't let Mr. Sargent get you down. He doesn't mean anything when he acts you low in class. Let's just his favorite pastime. Have fun this summer and always.

ALBANY 26 — RIORDAN 0

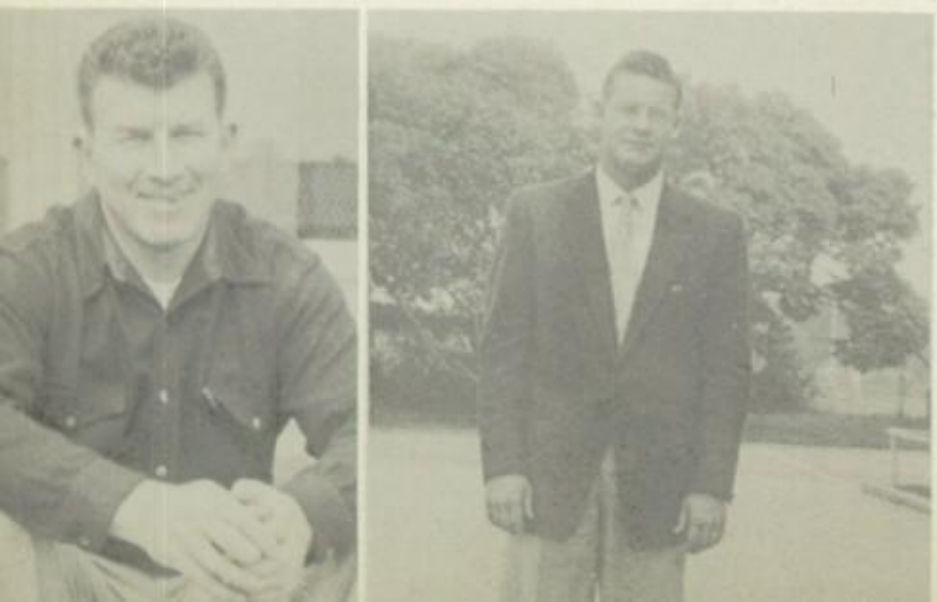
The Cougars had to win only one game to beat last season's record. On the first play-off scrimmage at Kezar Stadium "Bull" McKinney started around right end, fumbled, and Buddy Rogers grabbed the ball in mid-air and rambled 60 yards for the first touchdown. After this the Cougar offense never stopped. A much-improved line sent halfback Charlie McDonald into the end zone twice and "Bull" McKinney once. Don McFadin broke last year's season record in this game, converted twice, making the total 26. All this, added to aggressive defensive play, started the season off right.

ALBANY 19 — ST. MARY'S 0

Albany next met St. Mary's on the Cougar Field for the City Championship. This was billed as a grid natural because of the eveness of the teams. Albany surprised everyone including St. Mary's, by opening up with a terrific passing attack. The first scoring drive came through the sharp passing of Charlie Borreani to Ron Hansen and Charlie McDonald early in the second quarter. The Cougars moved the ball from their 47 to St. Mary's 10, finally giving Charlie McDonald the scoring chores to lead 6 to 0. The next time we got the ball Charlie McDonald scored again, and the gun sounded for the half. Don McFadin kicked the extra point. From then on it was all the Cougars' game, with McKinney going to the end zone for another score. St. Mary's threatened once, moving ball to Albany's 7. But when the chips were down, St. Mary's couldn't get around Bobbie Thomas, end. Other line standouts were Ed Lewis and Red Watts, whose key block sent McDonald into the end zone for the second score.

ALBANY 13 — ANTIOCH 26

Albany opened league play against a highly-touted Antioch. Antioch's heavy line and powerful backfield proved too much for the Cougars. Albany sent McKinney into the end-zone once, and Ron Hansen caught a pass for the other score. But, try as they might, they could not match the scoring of B. J. Hill.



Coaches Craige Orlieb & Charles Clarke

ALBANY 20 — MT. DIABLO 39

Albany, in this game, looked as though they were going to walk away with the big one. The speed of Charlie McDonald scored two touchdowns, and the short yardage of power blasts by "Bull" McKinney, scored another, putting the Cougars, with two McFadin conversions, at a 20 to 12 lead at half time. But the two-platoon system of Diablo and the loss of Parrino, star linebacker, didn't help the Cougars. The Devils' line came back like a tiger, and their backfield out-scored our lead. The brilliant play of "Hurricane" Higgins on a 68 yard punt return, and two bootlegs by Q. B. Mari McKean, left the Cougars on the bottom of a 39 to 20 game.

ALBANY 20 — ACALANES 12

Sparked by "Bull" McKinney and Charlie McDonald, and the passing arm of Q. B. Charlie Borreani, the Albany Cougars upset the Acalanes Dons for their first league victory. Charlie McDonald scored three touchdowns, and Don McFadin kicked two conversions. Outstanding was the Senior Tackle Ernie Schorsch, who was 48 minute—man captain for the game. Linemen, Don Pihl and Ed Lewis and fullback, "Bull" McKinney, stood out on defense.

ALBANY 13 — ALHAMBRA 19

Albany, in its worst game of the season, was upset by Alhambra. Albany was behind 19 to 0 when they realized what had happened. McDonald and Borreani scored one apiece, but we could never get across the tieing touchdown, even from the two yard line. Albany was also hit hard by losing Cliff Ojala, tackle, and Ed Lewis, guard, via the injury route.

ALBANY 6 — PITTSBURG 12

Albany could not catch a fast Pittsburg team, although we got the breaks. Our passing bogged down so Center Don Pihl and guards, Mickey Kerr and John DeMello opened gapping holes in the Pitt line to let McKinney through. Again it was Charlie McDonald ramming over for the score. Joe Dorsey, who was out in the middle of the season, and shifted to halfback, was another star. He blanketed the Pitt passing attack, saving Albany twice by interceptions.

ALBANY 8 — JOHN SWETT 6

Albany hit a rain-soaked field for its last game. The victory gave us a 4 and 4 record which isn't bad. Albany started the game right when McKinney and Banks nailed John Swett Q. B. in the end-zone for two points. John Swett later passed for a touchdown. On a vital drive, Charlie McDonald scored. The boy who really showed in this game was Dick McHone, who emerged as an aggressive defensive guard. Also outstanding were end, Red Watts, and tackle, Lewis Wood.

Captains Schorsch, McDonald and Lewis

NEXT YEAR

The loss of Albany's all-county halfback, Charlie McDonald; Q. B. Charlie Borreani; and other Senior athletes, including Ed Lewis, Ernie Schorsch, Cliff Ojala, Leroy Banks, Bob Ettinger, linemen; and Joe Dorsey, Buddy Rogers, Don Torrez, backs, will hit us hard. The Cougars will have a tough time to find a better converter than Don McFadin.

But Albany will do all right on returning lettermen. Big "Bull" McKinney 2nd string all C.C. A.L. fullback, and Robbie Parrino, linebacker and full or halfback, coupled with Louie Catalano at the other half, and Ron Hansen, who will shift to Q.B. from end, will make up a powerful running attack. Also, there will be Jerry Russ from the varsity and several fine J. V. backs.

In the line, back from the first string will be center Don Pihl, guard Mickey Kerr, and end Red Watts, who will probably convert to tackle, and guard John DeMello. Also returning will be Dick McHone, a good guard. Lewis Wood will fill the other tackle spot; and Bobby Thomas, one end.

If Coaches Craige Ortlieb and Charles Clarke can find some depth and another end, we should have a fine football team.

This year Albany's constantly improving J. V. football team played one of the best seasons in its history. Their record of two wins, two ties, and four losses is now on the record books. If our J. V.'s keep improving this way, maybe some day big things are coming.

Three big seasons for this year's success were: first, the excellent coaching of Coach William Savage. Mr. Savage came to us recently from Nevada, where he was coach, and will also handle the varsity track chores in the spring. Second, was a heavier line in almost every position; and third, a faster backfield, led by a cagey little quarterback, Jim Donahue.

Although meeting bigger and heavier lines from other schools, our line held its own. Standouts were guards, Bill Togolini and Bob McNulty; center, Ernest Chapman; tackles, Rich Masuero and Fred Walters; and ends, Don Keller and Jim MacManus.

Backfield speedsters were: Bill Peoples, Fullback; John Hunter, Art Blunt and Kurt Freeman, halfbacks. All this put together by Donahue might mean the answer to more depth on the varsity next year.

Speaking of next year, Coach Savage feels that with an earlier start with the full squad that a better team will be developed.

Varsity Basketball

This year's cagers captured their 3rd crown. Coach Ortlieb, with ALL-CCCAL Joe Dorsey, Charley Borreani and Charley McDonald back, filled out the team with Ron Hansen and Bill Larsen from last year's "B's".

This high-powered team terrorized the league and finished with a 15-1 record, four full games ahead, and were again invited to the Tournament of Champions.

Albany, changed to the fast break and press style of play, had for the first time in a long while a powerful bench crew, headed by "Bull" McKinney, Fred Ibsen, Buddy Rogers, and Ron Brenner. Coach Ortlieb was able to substitute down to the fifteenth man several times during the season, even giving the reserves a chance to start and win a game on their own.

Albany set a prep scoring record for northern California with 108 digits against Pleasant Hills and also had the best offense and defense scoring marks in the league.

The following honors were earned by our leading players.

Joe Dorsey - team co-captain, 1st team all-county, league 2nd highest scorer, team high point man.

Ron Hansen - 1st team all-county, league 4th high scorer.

Charles McDonald - team co-captain, 3rd team all-county, co-holder of Most Valuable Player for '54.

Charles Borreani - all-county honorable mention and co-holder of Most Valuable Player for '54.

Albany, with several factors working against them such as injuries and colds, did not do as well as expected in the Tournament of Champions, losing to St. Mary's (Albany) the first night, beating Palo Alto the second, and losing to Chico in the consolation trophy game played at the U. C. Men's Gym on March 11, 12, & 13.

In '54 the Cougars had the best team ever entered into league play. The loss of many seniors will hit Albany hard next year. But with Ron Hansen and Bill Larsen back from the first team and Bill Young, Don Pihl, Bull McKinney and Dick Day from reserves, Coach Ortlieb with the help of the "B's", should enter a tough team in league play next year.

Captains Dorsey & McDonald

Bee Basketball

Coach Jim Gualtieri's leaving and the moving of last year's first string to the varsity, left Albany High "B" Basketball a shakey situation for 1954. The team, however, was molded together very well by the new coach, Howard Schinnerer.

Coach Schinnerer had one boy back from the bee team's first six, Paul O'Gara, last year's co-captain and this year's captain, who provided scoring punch plus play-making ability to lead the team.

Along with O'Gara, at guard he had three top floor men to choose from, Dick Bauer, Bob Willson, or Louie Catalano.

Also this year, a familiar name at Albany was in the line-up -- Tamm. Wes Tamm was a top scorer and rugged on the boards. Along with Wes, Albany filled out its tallest "B's" in many a year with Phil Irwin at center and John Carmelich at forward. This gave us quite a lot of backboard control.

This led to fourth place for the "B's" in our league.

1954 Tennis

The "netmen" hit the courts as an inexperienced team whose chief hope lay in Carl Anderson, returning top player. The ninth graders didn't look too promising, but they finally improved enough to turn the trick. The Cougars ended the season tied in second place.

This year the "netmen" are more experienced. Three outstanding players are Mickey Kerr, Eugene Serex, and David Bruce.

Mickey played number two spot last year. His quick thinking and control should put him high in contention for number one man.

Eugene has great form and is pretty to watch. He is expected to hold down a top spot.

David has lots of speed, coupled with ability to make impossible shots seem easy, which makes him look like a great player.

This year, more than any other year, the merchants proved themselves to be "Our Friends". With their donations, they showed their support of Albany High School through greatly helping finance our yearbook. We would like to thank each of them personally, but since that would be impossible, we print their names here for all to see. We can find no adequate way of expressing our appreciation, but we hope you will---by patronizing them.

Bill Dublin was responsible for bringing in many of the pledges, and he deserves our heartfelt thanks too.
